

Jersey Girl's State '63 by Anita Hubbard

The week of June 23, Jean Barrows, Dorothy Mason and myself, Anita Hubbard, joined some three hundred other girls at Douglass College, New Brunswick, for the annual session of New Jersey Girls State.

Soon after we arrived on Sunday afternoon, things started rolling. We chose our political parties and got acquainted with many of the girls. Throughout our stay there, we were always making new friends from all parts of the state.

Each day we would attend lectures about a certain level of government, starting with the Municipal to County to State. To help us understand it more fully, each girl ran for some office. By the end of the week every girl held an office, all the way from town sheriff up to governor of Girl's State.

I think that the girls really had the most fun campaigning for the different offices when everyone got together and thought up crazy songs and slogans. Each night, a few cabins would put on a skit and at the end of the week, the best one would win a prize.

After all the elections were over and all of the offices filled, we had an inauguration for the newly elected governor. This was the highlight of our stay. All of the girls were dressed in Beautiful pastel gowns. The girls' parents and boyfriends were invited to this ceremony, which was held in Voorhees Chapel.

We all left for home on Friday afternoon, taking with us a new knowledge of government and itics, and many new friendships. It was an experience that we will always remember.

Jersey Boys' State '63

On Sunday, June 23, 1963, the eight delegates from Pompton Lakes High School arrived on the campus of Rutgers University. They were Larry Ball, Craig Burton, Walter Dale, Ed Fagan, Sam Faucetta, Jack McElligot, Paul Usinowicz and Sam Weinstein. New Jersey Boys' State '63 had begun.

Upon arriving, the boys registered and were assigned to their dorms. After a luncheon with the staff and previous Boy Staters, a general meeting was held in the Rutgers Gym, where the purpose of Boys' State was explained to the boys by Director Harold Eaton. After this, the week moved quickly. Two political parties were formed, and caucuses, planning sessions, rallies and campaigns were held.

The boys heard talks by many prominent speakers, including Senator Arthur P. Smith, Senator Peter A. Thomas, Commander Thomas Keane (ret) and many other well-known lawyers, commissioners and politicians.

The week concluded with the election of the Boys' State Governor. A Boys' State Band was formed and they held several concerts during the week. Competitive sports were held each afternoon and the week finished with a track meet at the Rutgers Stadium.

Boys' State was concluded with a final General Assembly in the Rutgers Gym on Sunday afternoon, June 30. The boys who attended agree that Boy's State '63 was a worthwhile experience.

At an assembly held during the school year, the boys and girls who attended New Jersey Boy's State and Girls' State will describe their stay there to the entire school.

How Does It Feel To Be A Senior?

It's Great!

Eye-Catchers

This summer, while everyone has been relaxing and enjoying their vacation, some people have been working hard. The majorettes and cheerleaders have given up some of their time in order to practice their routines for this year's football season.

Weekday nights throughout the summer found the girls in Hershfield Park working hard. Over in one corner, we discovered the cheerleaders. Ten capable girls have flipped through the summer improving their carwheels, somersaults, splits and jumps. Their clamorous voices heard over in the other corner of the park, where batons could be seen flying high. The majorettes twirled themselves into better routines.

Both the majorettes and cheerleaders hope to make this season the most successful one yet. They hope to have your support throughout the year.

Class of '64

With each passing year, we become more thrilled at the prospect of coming closer to our goal of prevailing as seniors. Seniors are thought of as important people, and they are looked up to by the underclassmen of every school.

Since the time when you first enter high school, you always follow the example set by the seniors. You want to be just like them. Time can't go fast enough for you. You just can't wait until it is your turn to walk down the Senior Walk and through the Senior Door. At the assemblies, you stand and wait until the seniors are seated in the center seats, dreaming of the day when you will be in that position.

A senior is someone you idolize. In your junior year, the waiting becomes almost unbearable. You have only one more year to go, one year until you reach your highest step in school.

Well, the time finally comes. You are a Senior now. You find that there's no one to look up to anymore. Instead, you are the one being looked up to. You're the example for the rest of the school. They are going to follow you, now. You have to learn to be a leader instead of just a follower. Your behavior is copied. You are the one walking down the Senior Walk, while the others look on and envy you.

But you find that it's not all that you thought it would be. It is a lot more. You have a lot of responsibility, now, but you wouldn't want to trade it for anything. You've waited too long, and it's too wonderful.

Our New S.G.A.

This year, our Student Government Association (S.G.A.) has been renovated. With the re-writing of the old constitution, new ideas and policies have been formed. The S.G.A. will no longer handle the money matters of the school, but will deal only in matters of school policy government.

The Constitution must meet with the approval of the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools, after which it will be printed and distributed to the students.

To clarify a point, the term Student Council refers to the president, officers, cabinet and legislative body (homeroom representatives). The actual name of the entire organization is the Student Government Association of Pompton Lakes High School.

The Cabinet of S.G.A. consists of Joan Crosson from the sophomore class, Bonnie Mussell and Lorraine Schubert from the junior class, and Mike Eisemann and Sam Weinstein from the senior class. The election of homeroom representatives will be held sometime within the next year. Meetings of homeroom representatives will be held monthly with a change in format.

On November 13, one representative from Pompton Lakes High School S.G.A. will attend a convention of Student Councils held on the campus of Rutgers University. This year, Pompton Lakes High School is also a member of the State Organization of Student Councils. Through this organization, our S.G.A. will try to learn about the other Student Councils in the area in order to improve the workings of our own.

Senior Summer To Remember

You're late! Don't leave until the second bell! No gum chewing! Keep to the right! Keep those voices down! Walk in the halls! Do your homework! Sounds like we're back into the old routine again—school. Well don't let it get you down. Remember, it's our last year.

Remember what fun the summer was?
 Remember all the good times? Bad times? Sad times?
 Remember how many of us just couldn't wait to get back to school?
 To walk down the senior walk?
 Remember how we counted the days until our 17th birthday, just waiting to get our license?
 Remember how Anita H. waited for Doug to get home from Florida?
 Remember how it was Sharon's turn to cry?
 Remember when Marilyn and Paul go stuck down at the barn?
 Remember Rosie?
 Remember Paul, the shaving cream and Lehigh?
 Remember your tonsils, Lorraine?
 Remember the ambulance ride, Diane?
 Remember Lakehurst, Marian, Darlene and Sharon?
 Remember the Model A?
 Remember your birth certificate, Bob F.?
 Remember Dana's party? Dolly's party? Diane's party?
 Remember the times at the drive-ins?
 Remember Freddie Jays?
 Remember staying in, Guy?
 Remember your sailor, Linda?
 Remember getting lost in New York, Mary Anne?
 Remember W.T. Grant Co.?
 Remember how to ski, Wilma?
 Remember how Jane wanted to study Jimmy?
 Remember Dave's accident, Gail?
 Remember those afternoon drives?
 Remember the summer of '63?

College Corner

Indiana University is located in Bloomington, Indiana, which is located just 51 miles southwest of Indianapolis. There are also 10 extensions campuses located throughout the state.

The University is composed of ten colleges and schools, including the College of Arts and Sciences, The School of Business, the School of Education, and Recreation, the Professional Schools, and the Graduate School.

During the first year in college, all students attend the Junior Division, the "freshman division" of the University. Here he receives specialized counseling and an opportunity to receive guidance on his future educational plans. After freshman year, the student may enter any of the University's schools.

Indiana University is a member of the Western Conference, the Big Ten, and participates in an inter-collegiate athletic program equal to the best. Indian U. is the twelfth largest school in the nation. It was founded in 1820. The faculty includes scholars of national and international reputation. The University Library provides more than a million publications for the use of students.

Tuition for non-residents is $352.00 per semester. Over 1,500 undergraduate scholarships are offered each year. A Student Employment Service helps students to find part-time employment during the school year.

SAT scores are necessary for application to the University, along with a $10. application fee. All applicants should rank in the top quarter of their class and have taken 4 years of English, and a minimum of nine units in a combination of language, science, and mathematics. For further information, write to the Office of Records and Admissions, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana.

G.C.I.

The 1963 session of Girls' Citizenship Institute was held from June 17 to 21 on the campus of Douglass College in New Brunswick. Marlene Hevia was the delegate attending from Pompton Lakes High School. Over 500 girls from all over New Jersey attended the Institute, where they took courses in democracy and government, as well as learning about college life and participating in many activities.

Marlene feels that she gained an insight into her country and its system of government from her stay at Douglass. She represented our school well

No.32

On September 28, the Cardinal football team will open the 1963 season against Manchester at Hershfield Park.

The Cardinals will be looking forward to a most successful season under the expert guidance of Coach Benson and the leadership of the captain, Paul Usinowicz. This team will be number 32 for Coach, and in his words, "it should square some accounts" left over from previous years.

This year's squad will be built around the thirteen returning lettermen. These players have all had much game experience, and many of them were starting last year. The Pompton linemen will be led by such stand-out performers as Usinowicz and Ken Willis. In the backfield, Leroy Hunt and Jack Kinsey, both veteran players, will take care of the leather-lugging.

The squad began preparing for the coming season on Monday, September 2, and this team might well prove to be one of the best Cardinal grid squads in recent years.

See you at the game?

J.V.

For the first time in history, the Pompton Lakes football team will be supplemented by a junior varsity squad.

The J.V. team will be under the direction of Mr. J. McKenzie, the coach of the J.V. basketball and varsity baseball teams. This team should prove to be a boon to Pompton grid efforts by turning out many experienced players for the varsity squad.

Cross-Country Outlook

The cross-country team of P.L.H.S. is looking forward to its most successful season ever this fall.

Last year, the cross-country team enjoyed a record consisting of eight wins and one loss. The lone defeat was to Tri-County Parochial School Cross-Country champs, St. Lukes.

The cross-country team had but only two lettermen. One of them, Bruno Uberto, was one of last year's co-captains. There are four returning lettermen this year: co-captains John Sinsimer and Sam Weinstein, Richie Barry and John Stone. There are also many promising hopefuls this year. Some of the best are Walter Fox, John Tredrea and Andy Jordan.

These hard-working runners, coached by Mr. C. Banta, are hoping for an excellent season.

All in all, the outlook for this fall is for an extremely successful season. We hope that the students of P.L.H.S. will support the team by going to the cross-country meets after school, and want to wish the cross-country team good luck on behalf of the CARDINAL and the student body.

Meet Mr. Brown

by Bonnie Mussell

On July 1, 1963, a new Superintendent of the Pompton Lakes public school system, Mr. William F. Brown, took office. What is Mr. Brown really like?

He is a native New Jerseyite, having been born in Roselle Park, New Jersey. He went through the school system there, graduating from Roselle Park High School in 1931. He went on to Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts, where he took his Bachelor of Science Degree in 1935. He received his Masters in Education from the University of Maine in 1952. After receiving his degree from Springfield College, he went to Hastings College in Nebraska, where he taught Health and Phys. Ed., besides coaching football, basketball and track for two years. He then came back to New Jersey to become Director of Athletics and head coach, and eventually principal, for Union County Regional High School in Springfield, where he remained for 19 years.

His career at Springfield was interrupted from 1942 to 1946 when he served in the Navy with a rank of Lt. Commander. In 1956, he left Springfield and traveled to Madison, New Jersey to become Assistant Superintendent of Schools, a position he held for four years. In 1960, he returned to his hometown of Roselle Park and served as Superintendent until 1963, when he came to Pompton.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown now reside on Hill Court in Pompton Lakes. They have three children, two sons and a daughter. The oldest son recently made Mr. Brown a proud grandfather; their only daughter is a sophomore at Ithaca College; and their youngest boy will be a Senior at Pompton High this year.

Mr. Brown has expressed pleasure at the friendly greeting extended to him by the town. He sees an enjoyable future ahead and is looking forward to the opening of the school year. Besides his interest in high school sports, he enjoys fishing, hunting, golf, "generally all outdoor activities," and good music.

He hopes the faculty and Student Council can come up with a "meaningful morning exercise" to replace the Bible reading and the Lord's Prayer.

The CARDINAL staff welcomes our new superintendent of Schools and his family to Pompton Lakes.

Class News Notes

by Linda Wright

As you well know, The CARDINAL is your school paper, but did you ever think of it as your class paper too?

This year, the staff is going to try something new. We are dedicating a column especially for the news of all class activities. If you have any news which you would like to appear in the CARDINAL, please give it to Linda Wright between each issue of the CARDINAL.

Remember, this is your column, so make the most of it!

New Faces

At P.L.H.S.

This year, the Pompton High teaching faculty will have sixteen new faces. New additions to the staff are:
